FOUR FEET OF WATER Charles Lefhowicz, Five Years Old. Falls Into Duck Pond While Playing-Playmates Unable to Rescue

Tuesday afternoon while playing about the duck pond which his father. Rostany Lefhowicz of Roosevelt aveque, had recently made. Charle years, fell into the water and drowned before aid could reach Mr. Lefhowicz had only a short him. Mr. Lefhowicz had only a short time ago completed making the pend for his ducks and geese. The pend was about 20 feet long six feet wide and four feet deep and was filled with water supplied from a nearby spring. The boy with two brothers and a sister all about the same are as king sister, all about the same age as him-self, were playing about the pond, when Charles threw a cabbage stalk into the water and in trying to get it out fell in. His brothers being dn-able to assist him ran to the house and told the lad's mother what had and told the lad's mother what had happened and she, summoning some other women who were near by, ran to the scene of the accident and with the aid of a rake managed to get the lad out. Dr. E. J. Brophy was summoned but the lad had expired before the phy-sician arrived. Medical Examiner C. C. Gildersleeve was notified and pronounced death due to accidental drowning. Cummings and Ring took charge of the body. The boy is survived by his parents nd two brothers and two sistters. All-Day Session of Ladies' Aid. There was a large attendance at the all-day session of the Ladies' Aid soelicty of the Federated church held on Tuesday in the church parlors. The ladies tied quilts and did other society work. The man was car-ing a pail of beer in each hand at e time and the fluid was scattered the four winds. Engineer Preston took the man into his car and drove at once to St. Mary's hospital. It was found, however, that his injuries were slight and he was soon discharged. Engineer Preston notified Supt. Beach of the accident.

Paid First Official Visit.

The Groton selectmen. Palmer Stowe and Kretzer, paid their first of-ficial visit to the town farm at Mystic Monday afternoon and found ev-erything in first class condition. The dwelling house and buildings all show-ed evidences of thorough care and the crop yield on the farm was found to be all that could be expected. On the strength of their findings as the result of the investigation the mem-bers of the board decided to engage the superintendent. William H. Page for another year. Their action is fully justified, they said, by the conditions at the Spicer home as they tions at the found them.
